From the Principals Desk...

Dear Students, Faculty, and Well-Wishers,

I am pleased to present the November 2025 edition of Sphurti, highlighting the vibrant activities and achievements of PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur.

This month witnessed meaningful academic and cultural engagements—from National Library Week celebrations and the 150th Anniversary of Vande Mataram to an insightful webinar on the conservation of the Indian Blue Peafowl. Our NCC Naval cadets brought pride to the institution through their successful participation in the SCUBA Diving Adventure Course, while the NSS Clean and Green Programme reinforced our commitment to community service and environmental care.

Hosting the MY Bharat Block-Level Sports Meet was another proud moment, with our students securing top positions in various events. Faculty participation in national and international seminars further enriched our academic environment.

I extend my appreciation to all departments, staff, and students for their dedication and teamwork. Let us continue to strive for excellence with enthusiasm and integrity.

Warm regards,

Dr. B. Sujatha

Interactive Webinar

Ecology, Behavior, Threats And Conservation Of Indian Blue Peafowl Pavo cristatus

The IQAC and Department of Zoology of PRR & VS Government College, Vidavalur, organized an Interactive Webinar on National Peacock Day on 15 November 2025, highlighting the Ecology, Behaviour, Threats, and Conservation of the Indian Blue Peafowl (Pavo cristatus). The session featured Dr. M. C. Sathyanarayana, Retired Associate Professor, Department of Zoology & Wildlife Biology, A.V.C. College (Autonomous), Mayiladuturai, Tamil Nadu, as the Lead Speaker. The program received an excellent response with 163 registrations, achieving a peak attendance of 52 participants and maintaining a sustained attendance of 47 throughout the session. The event was conducted in collaboration with Government Degree College, Ramachandrapuram, and saw active engagement from students, faculty, and wildlife enthusiasts.

Commemorating 150 Years of Vande Mataram

The Department of History of PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur, observed the 150th Anniversary of our National Song Vande Mataram on 7 November 2025 at 10:00 AM. Staff and students participated in the Mass Singing of Vande Mataram, commemorating the iconic song written by Bankim Chandra Chatterjee on November 7, 1875. The program was organized in accordance with instructions received from the CCE, Mangalagiri, and was conducted with patriotic fervor on the college campus.

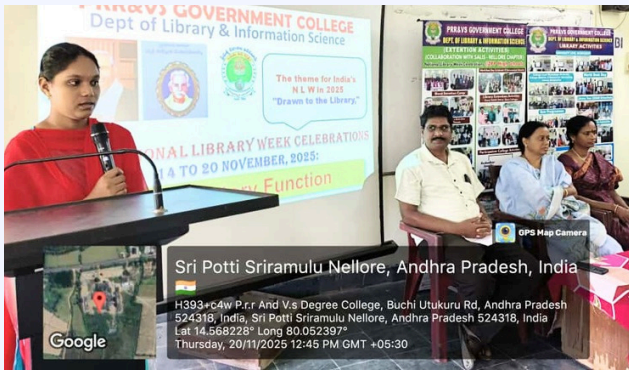

National Library Week Celebrations

The Department of Library and Information Science of PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur, celebrated National Library Week from November 14 to 20 with great enthusiasm. The objective of the celebration was to promote reading habits, encourage intellectual curiosity, and highlight the vital role of libraries in academic development.

A Book Exhibition was organized as part of the program, displaying a diverse collection of books from various disciplines, inspiring students to explore new areas of knowledge. In addition to this, the department conducted Essay Writing, Elocution, and Quiz Competitions, all of which received an overwhelming response from students. These activities provided a platform for learners to express their ideas, enhance communication skills, strengthen subject knowledge, and test their awareness of literary and general knowledge topics.

The week-long programs concluded with a Valedictory Function on November 20, where prizes were distributed to all the winners of the competitions. Faculty members appreciated the enthusiasm and active participation of the students, emphasizing the importance of libraries as hubs of learning and creativity. The celebration successfully reinforced the value of reading and the significance of library resources in shaping students' academic journeys.

C.P. Brown: Celebrating a Literary Icon

The IQAC, along with the Departments of Telugu and English, celebrated the Birth Anniversary of C.P. Brown on 10 November at PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur. On this occasion, faculty highlighted C.P. Brown's remarkable contributions to Telugu language, literature, and lexicography. Students actively participated in the program, which aimed to create awareness about Brown's invaluable role in preserving and promoting Telugu literary heritage.

NCC Cadets Selections

The NCC (Naval Unit) selection process was conducted at PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur, where a large number of students enthusiastically participated. Candidates underwent various physical fitness tests, including running, height measurement, and endurance assessments. The selection was carried out under the supervision of NCC officers, who evaluated the students based on their performance, discipline, and physical standards. Several students were successfully selected for the NCC Naval Unit, marking a proud moment for the college and encouraging the spirit of service and discipline among the youth.

Adventure Achievement by NCC Naval Cadets

Three NCC Naval Unit cadets from PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur successfully participated in the SCUBA Diving Adventure Course - 2025, held from 03-12 November 2025 at Visakhapatnam. Cadets B. Yeswanth, Y. Akhil, and K. Praveen Kumar attended the course conducted by the Command Clearance Diving Team and the 4(A) Naval Medical Unit NCC. Their participation highlights the college's growing NCC strength and showcases the cadets' courage, discipline, and commitment to adventure training.

Clean & Green programme

On 13 November, the NSS Unit of PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur, organized a Clean and Green Programme on the campus. Staff and students actively participated in cleaning activities, plantation work, and maintaining the surroundings. The initiative aimed to promote environmental awareness, cleanliness, and responsibility among students, contributing to a healthier and greener campus environment.

Field Trip

The staff and students of PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur, participated in an enriching Field Trip that covered botanical gardens, mangrove forests, river basins, and coastal ecosystems. The visit offered students a valuable opportunity to observe plant diversity, ecological interactions, and habitat adaptations in natural settings. Exploring mangroves and coastal areas helped them understand the significance of these ecosystems in protecting shorelines and supporting marine life.

The trip also served as a refreshing break from routine academics, allowing students to experience learning beyond the classroom. Faculty guided the learners through various observations, connecting theoretical concepts to real-life environmental features. This outreach programme not only expanded their scientific understanding but also fostered environmental responsibility, teamwork, and curiosity about the natural world.

A Thoughtful Gesture by the Vice Principal

Dr. N. Madhu, Vice Principal of PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur, took a thoughtful initiative by distributing one pair of uniform to the first-year Physics students. This gesture aimed to support students and encourage a sense of equality and discipline on campus. The students expressed their gratitude for the Vice Principal's considerate support and motivation.

Mera Yuva Bharat – Nellore Block Level Sports Meet for 2025–26

The Mera Yuva Bharat (MY Bharat) – Nellore Block Level Sports Meet 2025–26 was held on 24th November 2025 at PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur, which proudly hosted the event and ensured smooth coordination throughout the day. Students from Kovuru, Kodavaluru, and Vidavalur regions participated with remarkable enthusiasm, displaying outstanding athletic energy and competitive spirit. The meet featured events such as Volleyball (Men), Kho-Kho (Women), 100m Race (Men & Women), and Shotput (Men & Women). Our college students excelled with impressive performances, securing first place in Kho-Kho (Girls) and first place in Shotput (Men), bringing immense pride to the institution and highlighting the strength of our sports program.

“Champions are made from practice, perseverance, and passion.”

The event was graced by distinguished guests including Smt. T. Nagesh Kumari, MPDO, Vidavalur, Dr. B. Sujatha, Principal, PRR & VS GDC, Dr. Deendayal, Junior College Principal, and Sri A. Mahendra Reddy, District Youth Officer, who awarded mementos to the winners and motivated all participants to continue striving for excellence. Their presence added encouragement and value to the occasion. The sports meet not only fostered youth engagement, physical fitness, and teamwork, but also strengthened community spirit and inter-institutional bonding. The event truly reflected the vision of the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, inspiring young minds to actively participate in sports and uphold the spirit of healthy competition.

Constitution Day

The Department of Political Science, PRR & VS Government Degree College, Vidavalur, observed Constitution Day (Samvidhan Diwas) on 26th November with great reverence. As part of the program, the Constitutional Oath was administered to all students and staff on the college campus, reaffirming their commitment to uphold the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity enshrined in the Indian Constitution.

In addition, the department organized an outreach visit to a school in Parlapalli, where faculty and students conducted a brief awareness session on the significance of Constitution Day.

A portrait of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar was respectfully garlanded, and the Constitutional Oath was also taken by the school students and staff, promoting constitutional awareness and civic responsibility among young learners. This initiative strengthened community engagement and highlighted the college's dedication to spreading constitutional literacy beyond the campus.
